

NFB BELL® Academy: Upcoming Event for Blind Youth

Attend the National Federation of the Blind (NFB) BELL® (Braille Enrichment for Literacy and Learning) Academy, a transformative learning experience for blind and low-vision youth. Through engaging activities and hands-on learning, participants will deepen their Braille literacy and learn nonvisual skills to build confidence and independence.

Activities Include:

- Interactive Braille lessons that celebrate two-hundred years of tactile literacy.
- Inspiring stories of blind inventors and change-makers.
- Learn about the enduring legacy of Louis Braille.

Program Near You

The NFB of Iowa will host a residential NFB BELL Academy at Grand View University from July 20-25, 2025, with all meals provided. There is no registration fee, but donations to the NFB of Iowa are appreciated. Parents/guardians are responsible for transportation to and from the program; however, assistance is available if needed. Registration closes on June 30, 2025. Please contact Becky Young at 515-553-9270 or byoung@nfb.org for more details.
